Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering

IEEE Student Chapter

The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers Inc. (IEEE), a nonprofit organization, is the world's leading professional association with more than 377,000 individual members in 150 countries, for the advancement of technology. IEEE offers a wide range of learning, career enhancement, and employment opportunities in engineering sciences, research and other technical areas.

The Department of Electronics and communication Engineering of St. Joseph's Institute of Technology has started with IEEE RAS technical society & WIE affinity group in the month of April 2016. In May 2017, IEEE EMBS and IEEE BTS inaugurated. following that IEEE APS society inaugurated in the month of May 2018 .The IEEE PS has got the approval in May 2019. In every year student branch raising the number of the society chapter for spreading the latest research among the students in the different streams of topic. The IEEE student branch of St Joseph's Institute Of Technology is one of the 2nd largest student branches in IEEE Madras section for the year 2018. In 2018 its privilege to IEEE EMBS Student chapter for awarding the best regional IEEE EMBS Student Chapter in Asia Pacific. IEEE Student Chapter is more active with 156 -student members and 03 professional members. The department strives to improve the standards of student members For the benefit of IEEE Student members; the society organizes technical meetings, technical events, and technical seminars, Conferences, Workshops and Faculty Development Programs to empower the knowledge of the students.

Student Chapter Advisor : Dr. C.Gnana Kousalya
Professor, HOD/ECE
